Accessible Tourism in Central and Eastern Europe

Accessible tourism in Central and Eastern Europe

- basic know-how, rising awareness
- Good examples of efforts to coordinate information about AT
- Good examples of partnerships / platforms
- Good examples of standardization, certification and labelling systems
- Good examples of competences development

Accessible tourism in Central and Eastern Europe

- Lack of awareness and engagement from the key stakeholders (tourism providers)
- Individual/Local/regional > national/cross-border/ transnational partnerships
- Insufficient availability of information across Europe

Good steps = good Prospects

Good information ...

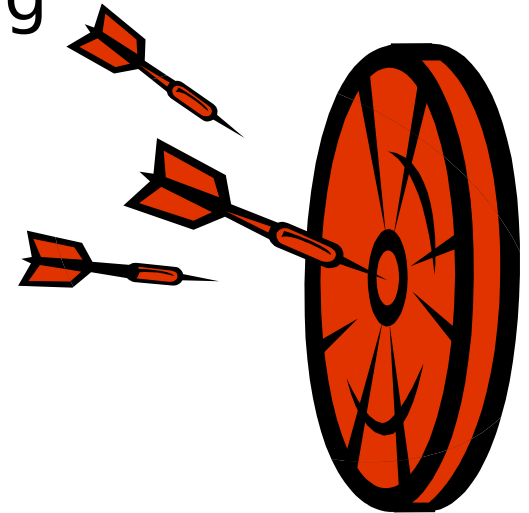

= available, measurable, shared information

Good approach ...

= experience exchange, networking

Good idea ...
